

Alright team. This college festival is our golden opportunity!

We're going to be famous! Chat for days!

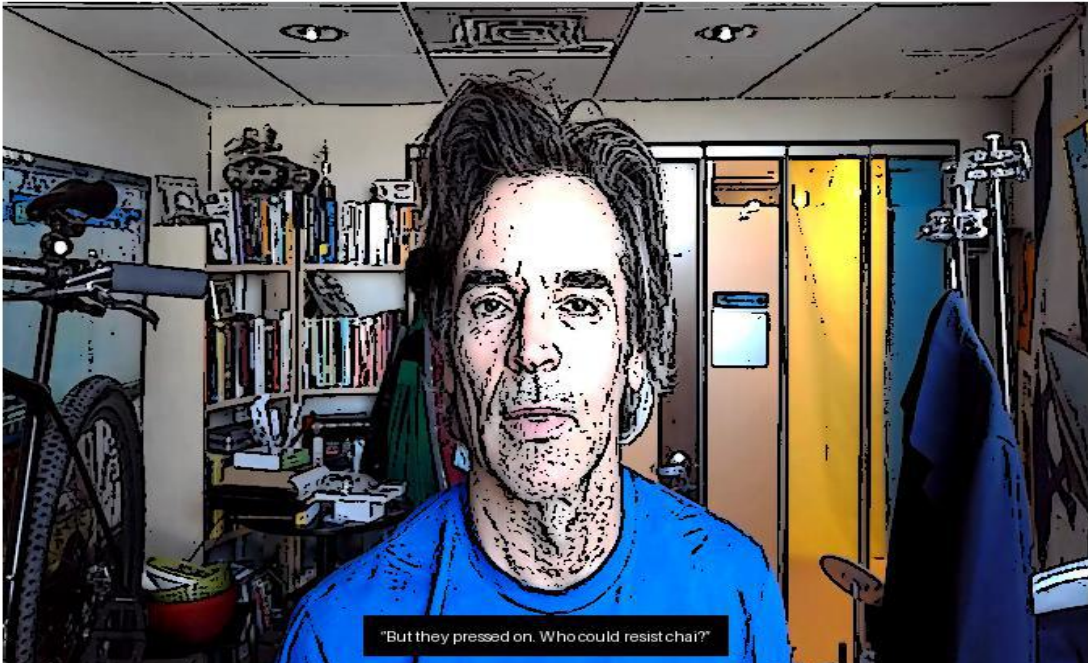

I just hope we're not arrested for this. Do we even have a permit?

Permits? Overrated. We've got chai. Same thing.

This is going to end badly, isn't it?

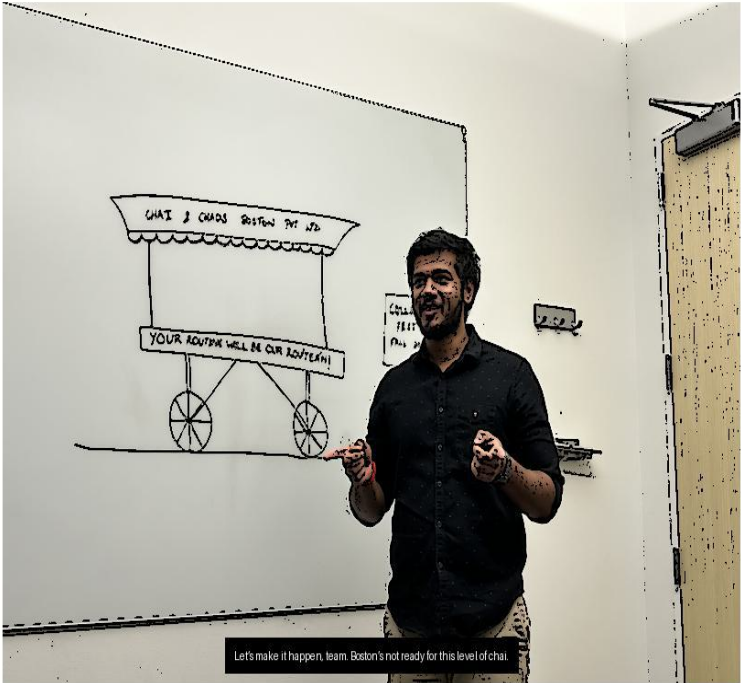

"But they pressed on. Who could resist chai?"

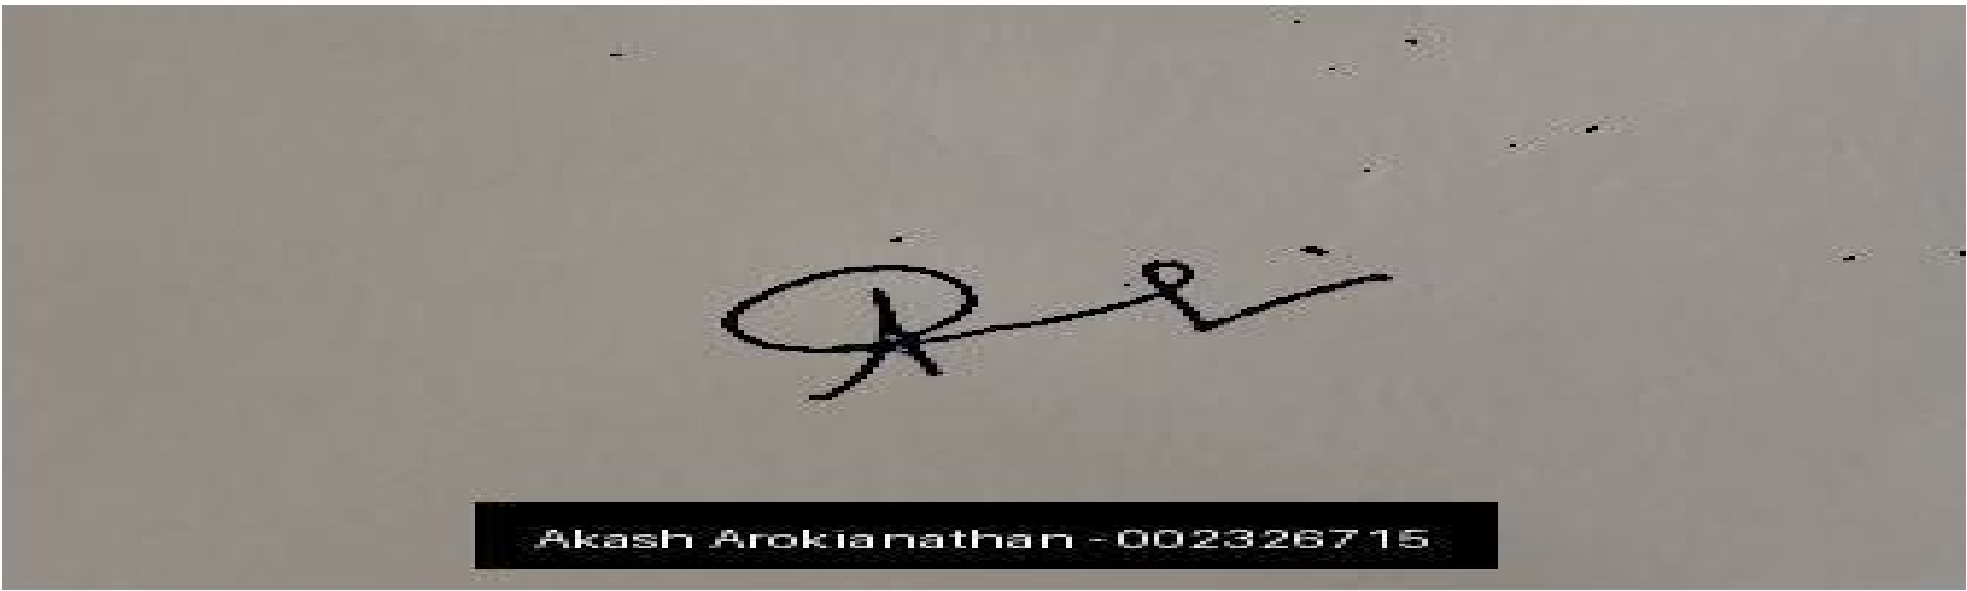

Picture it: Crowds of people, all desperate for a taste of home!

Yeah, or desperate to avoid us when we're fined.

Let's make it happen, team. Boston's not ready for this level of chai.
